CHURCH OF NATIVITY: Available

Dear friends,

In our readings today, both Moses on the mountain and the persistent widow remind us of one powerful truth — prayer has power. Prayer changes things. Prayer changes people. Prayer moves the heart of God.

1. Moses' hands lifted in prayer. In the first reading from Exodus, we see Moses standing on a hill while Joshua fights the Amalekites below. As long as Moses' hands were raised in prayer, Israel had the upper hand. But when he grew tired and lowered them, the enemy began to win.

So Aaron and Hur stood beside him, holding up his hands — a beautiful image of community prayer, support, and perseverance.

This story teaches us that victory in life's battles is not won by strength or weapons — but by prayer.

We all fight our own battles — for our families, our children, our faith, our health. And like Moses, we must keep our hands raised toward heaven.

2. The widow who never gave up. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us about a widow who would not give up. She kept going to an unjust judge, asking for justice, again and again, until the judge finally said, "I will grant her justice, so she doesn't wear me out!"

If an unjust judge can respond to persistence, how much more will our loving Father in heaven respond to His children who cry out to Him day and night?

Jesus ends the story by saying, "Will not God see justice done for His chosen ones who cry to Him?" But then He adds a question that pierces the heart: "When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?" Will He find people still praying? Still trusting? Still believing?

3. Prayer in our modern world. We live in a world that moves at lightning speed. Everyone is "too busy." We scroll more than we pray. We talk more to our phones than to our God.

And yet, never before has prayer been more urgently needed.

Our children face dangers we never imagined — violence, drugs, online temptations, false friendships, and a culture that often confuses right and wrong.

Parents today must be like Moses — standing in prayer over their children, hands lifted to heaven for protection, guidance, and faith.

Mothers and fathers, your prayers are more powerful than you think.

When you kneel before God, you stand between your children and evil.

You may not always see the result right away — but God is working behind the scenes.

4. Real examples of persevering prayer. St. Monica prayed for 17 years for the conversion of her son, Augustine. He became one of the greatest saints and doctors of the Church.

A mother today prays every night for her teenage son who has drifted from the faith. She may not see instant results, but her prayer is a shield around him. A father prays for his family's unity even when misunderstandings arise. That unseen prayer brings peace that words cannot.

5. Perseverance and confidence. Prayer is not magic — it is relationship.

Sometimes God answers "yes," sometimes "not yet," and sometimes "I have something better." But He always answers.

When we pray, we are not trying to change God's mind — we are opening our hearts to His will. The key is perseverance — never give up praying, even when nothing seems to change. Like Moses, keep your hands lifted. Like the widow, keep knocking. Like Jesus in Gethsemane, say, "Not my will, but Yours be done." So, Prayer is the breath of our soul. Without it, our faith weakens. With it, we become strong even in weakness.

Let us be people of prayer — faithful, patient, and confident. Let us pray for our children, for our families, for our Church, and for this troubled world. Because in the end, the greatest protection we can give our children is not money, not success, not security — but prayer. When we place them in the hands of God, they are safe.

So, let us lift our hands like Moses, and keep them lifted. Let us knock like the widow, and keep knocking. For as Jesus promised: "Ask, and you shall receive. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and the door will be opened to you." Amen.

Have a great week and here is a thought.

I heard about these three men who were out in the wilderness when they came upon this violent, raging river. They needed to get to the other side.

The first man prayed, "God, please give me the strength to cross this river." Poof! God gave him big arms and strong legs. He swam across — it took him two hours, but he made it!

The second man saw that and prayed, "God, please give me the strength and the tools to cross this river." Poof! God gave him a boat. He rowed across in 30 minutes.

Then the third man prayed, "God, please give me the strength, the tools, and the intelligence to make it across."

Poof! God turned him into a woman. She looked at the map, walked five minutes upstream... and crossed the bridge!

Today is World Mission Sunday!

Today, every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law—World Mission Sunday. Your generosity today supports the Pope's missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling.

This year's theme—"Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples"—is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us, "Each of us is a mission on this earth" (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Together, we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ.

The fourth archdiocesan Celebration of Our Lady of the Americas and All Nations began with the holy rosary being prayed. Father Alexander Avendano, rector of the Shrine of Maria Reina de la Paz in Hartford, leads the group outside St. Lawrence O'Toole Church.

As the celebration moves indoors, each participating group processes into the church with a representative image of the Blessed Mother and the flag of their country with their national anthem playing the background. Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne blesses the images of Our Lady as they are presented to him.

More than 800 people representing 12 countries came together for the fourth annual Mary of the Americas celebration in a display of faith, unity and cultural pride. There was prayer, there was pageantry and there was a festival of Latin American food.

The archdiocesan celebration for the Blessed Mother Mary of the Americas and all Nations was held at the Shrine of Maria Reina de la Paz at St. Lawrence O'Toole Church in Hartford on Oct. 4 and will be held here in years to come.

It began with an international rosary in English, Spanish and Brazilian, which was followed by Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin with Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne as the principal celebrant.

"It is wonderful for us to gather under the devotion of our Blessed Mother because she always points us toward her Son," the archbishop told the packed church. Father Alexander Avendano, rector of the shrine, gave the homily and petitions were presented for people of the Americas and the Caribbean.

The delegations wore colorful traditional dress of their countries. Before Mass, they processed into the shrine, singing their national anthems and waving flags of their native countries, while carrying images of the Blessed Mother, which they venerate under her different titles.

They sang and they clapped as their voices filled the shrine in a joyous display of pageantry.

HONORING THE BLESSED MOTHER OF THE AMERICAS AND ALL NATIONS

The delegation representing the United States of America entered as the Star Spangled Banner was sung and carried an image of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception.

For Father Avendano, it was more than a cultural celebration; it was a demonstration of the compassion of "momma Mary," for Latinos far from their homes and their biological mothers who turn to the mother of Jesus for hope and consolation.

"Some are separated from their mothers and cannot return to see them, maybe because of immigration situations or because they have lost their mothers and cannot grieve properly or say goodbye," Father Avendano says. "So there is pain in the people's hearts, and this event lets them know that mama Mary assures them she is here for people, especially for suffering people and for orphaned people. Although they cannot see their natural mothers, their supernatural mother is here for them no matter what happens. This celebration is a message of compassion and companionship and love."

The priest, who comes from Colombia and was appointed rector of the shrine in August, says "mama Mary is the reason for my priesthood, the reason for my work, the reason for my existence."

She is everything and more, and Jesus is OK with that. On this day, we honor her, our cultures and our ancestors as well."

At the conclusion, he thanked Archbishop Coyne for celebrating Mass at the event. "We know you are here for us, and we appreciate that so much."

Among those represented were St. George Church in Bridgeport (Mexico – Our Lady of Guadalupe); St. Mary Church in New Britain (Chile – Our Lady of Mount Carmel); North American Martyrs Parish in East Hartford (El Salvador – Our Lady of Peace); St. Augustine Church in Hartford (Guatemala – Our Lady of the Rosary); and The Shrine of Maria Reina de la Paz in Hartford (Honduras – Our Lady of Suyapa) (Peru – Our Lady of Mercy) (Colombia – Our Lady of Chiquinquirá) (United States – Immaculate Conception) (Costa Rica – Our Lady of the Angels) (Dominican Republic – Our Lady of High Grace) (Puerto Rico – Our Lady of Divine Providence) (Cuba – Our Lady of Charity of El Cobre).

Mass was followed by a festival of food and displays of different cultures.
